6. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1 During this agreement you must:

(a) communicate and cooperate with us.

(b) discuss with us any specific information you want about a property. This may include:

(c) give us enough personal and financial information so we can assess your ability to buy property that matches your search criteria.

(d) tell us about inquiries you make or receive about purchases that affect this agreement.

6.2 During this agreement and 90 days after this agreement ends, you must give us copies of any offers we don't know about that you make or receive for properties that match the search criteria, unless you sign a buyer representation agreement with another brokerage that begins after this agreement ends.

7. BUYER'S WARRANTY

7.1 You warrant that:

(a) you are not currently represented by any other brokerage and will not enter into another buyer representation agreement with another brokerage during the term of this agreement with respect to the same market area(s).

(b) you have disclosed to the brokerage all of the material requirements that you are seeking in a property.

(c) prior to completion, you are NOT an "ineligible person" or a "foreign controlled corporation" and you are eligible to purchase "controlled land" as those terms are defined in the Foreign Ownership of Land Regulations.

8. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

8.1 It is not a conflict of interest if the designated agent simply shows you a property owned by a seller they also represent.

8.2 A conflict of interest occurs when the designated agent acts as the sole agent for both you and the seller. In that case, they must tell you there is a conflict and tell you and the seller your options.

8.3 If there is a conflict, you and the seller may agree to have the designated agent act as a transaction facilitator. In that case, they work for both sides to bring about a purchase and sale and do not act as sole agent for either of you.

8.4 If the designated agent, you or the seller decide not to have them facilitate the purchase and sale, they will act as the sole agent of the side which first signed a representation agreement with us, unless we all agree otherwise in writing.

8.5 If the designated agent does not continue to act as your sole agent, you may ask us to designate another agent from our brokerage, you may choose another brokerage, ask our designated agent to refer you to another brokerage, or have a customer relationship with the designated agent. If you are a customer, the designated agent's responsibilities are limited to acting honestly, using reasonable care and skill, and making sure any information they give you is correct.
