Sale Transaction Procedure for Conveyancing

THE OFFER HAS BEEN ACCEPTED

- YOU MUST SUBMIT ALL TRANSACTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED
- Final signing is initialed and dated
- Fully fill out a transaction information sheet with all information. This form is electronic so it can filled in on the computer and emailed.
- Email your transactions to noraltadeals@royallepage.ca
- When emailing please put the property address in the subject line of the email
- All sale transactions should be submitted with; transaction info sheet, purchase contract, current MLS sheet, copy of deposit, any amendments/addendums/schedules etc.
- If you are on the buyers side, also include; fintrac ID, consumer relationship, buyer representation, title, receipt of funds (for all deposits)
- If you are on the listing side we will have your clients documents (fintrac, consumer relationship, listing contract and title) attached to the listing you have already handed in to reception , so you do not need to hand these documents in again.
- If you are double ending (representing both seller and buyer also include; agreement to represent both seller and buyer

CONDITIONS HAVE BEEN REMOVED

- Submit the waiver(s) to conveyancing as soon as possible.
  As the listing company, we have 2 business days to report the listing as sold to the board (RAE). If the sale is not reported within those 2 business days you are fined $25/day for every day it is late

LAWYER INFORMATION

- When sending information, please always include; Lawyer name, company name, phone & fax number, and email
  - View lawyer directory at The Law Society of Alberta if needed (http://lsa.memberpro.net/main/body.cfm)

DEPOSITS

- If possession is 30 days or less, all and any deposits must be either a certified cheque, bank draft or wire transfer. For wire transfer or EFT deposit instructions contact conveyancing.

REFERRALS AND/OR BUILDERS

- Please provide contact information; phone number, fax number, address, and/or email for whomever we need to invoice for commissions
- A transaction information sheet and referral form must be submitted for referrals

WHAT THE ADMIN OFFICE DOES ON EACH TRANSACTION

Listing Side: We will send letters of instruction to both solicitors, advise the outside broker the amount of commission we are sending them, report to RAE of sale, and order sign removal with your reception.

Buying Side: Invoice outside broker for commission, report to RAE of sale, add clients name to Anniversary List.

COMMISSION CHEQUE

- Commission cheques are processed daily. Once we receive the funds from the lawyer or outside broker we closed and pay out the deal.
- Commissions are paid to our agents via EFT. It takes 3 business days for the funds to be transferred into your account.